Wellbeing Saturdays - Pen and Wash Next Steps - Buildings	12/06/2027	12/06/2027	MELTON LIBRARY	22.70

01. Who is this course for?

This course is open to anyone interested in developing their skills in using how to use a water-soluble pen and a brush to make tonal marks to create buildings.

02. What will I learn?

To draw your picture, first you will be shown how to reproduce the image by using a grid - the tutor will demonstrate some techniques on how to do this. A further demonstration will be given on how to produce tone with the pen and adding water with a brush to produce different tones. You will also learn how to be more creative in response to given subject matter.

03. How will I learn?

This is a tutor-led, art class. There will be handouts available, and the tutor will also demonstrate how to achieve effects. As you work on each project the tutor will offer 1-1 help and advice. The course builds up step by step to help your understanding and for you to gain confidence in each area before moving onto the next. Please avoid taking holidays during courses.

04. What will I need to bring?

For this course you will need watercolour paper, pencils, rubber, ruler, set of watercolour brushes, kitchen roll. The tutor will provide the pen.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

This course is for people will some experience using pen and wash techniques or participated in the Wellbeing Saturdays - Introduction to Pen and Wash - Landscapes course. This course may not be suitable for those with no experience in drawing and painting.

06. How will I be assessed?

The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum uses formative and summative assessment methods to evaluate learner progress. You will work towards completing a set of class learning targets, as well as your own personal development targets. Informal discussions with the tutor will take place throughout the course, both individually and in groups. Your progress may also be documented through photographic evidence.

07. What could I do after this course?

Upon completing this course, you may wish to try one of our other art classes. The Learning for Wellbeing

Upon completing this course, you may wish to try one of our other art classes. The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum offers a wide range of art, craft, sewing, cookery, dance and creative arts courses for you to continue developing skills specifically aimed at improving your wellbeing. Courses are available to search on the GoLearn website.

08. How will I be supported in my learning?

We aim to support all learners to succeed. Our tutors will work with all learners to meet individual needs by using a range of resources and teaching methods. When you enrol on your course you will be asked if you have any additional learning needs or disabilities which may affect your learning. This might include physical disabilities, neurodivergent needs (e.g., Autistic Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, or dyspraxia, etc.), visual and auditory impairments, or a medical condition which might affect your learning. Your tutor will contact you prior to joining the course to discuss what support can be put in place. For some learners, this may mean organising extra time in exams or arranging for a Learning Support Assistant to support your learning in class. We also offer a wide range of assistive technology such as reader pens, screen readers, large print keyboards and screens, alongside in-class resources such as coloured overlays, large-print resources and more.

09. Is help available with course fees?

Many of our courses are FREE to all learners. Your course may be FREE if you are unemployed or earn under £26,800 before deductions. If you are in receipt of state benefits or have a low income (£28,733.50 before deductions) you could be entitled to enrol on your course at a 70% reduced fee cost. Some exclusions apply, eligibility for fee reduction is subject to change, and you may be required to provide evidence of earnings. If the amount you must pay for your course is over £50, we offer instalment plans which break down the cost of learning into a set number of easy monthly payments. If you need help with the wider costs of study, such as childcare, resources, travel, and transport costs, you may be eligible to have these costs reimbursed through our Discretionary Learner Support Fund. Visit us online for more details, and to download the online application form.

10. How do I choose the right course for me?
