

ESOL - EVERYDAY MATHS FOR ESOL

Subject Area

ESOL

Course Summary

The classes will be part in the classroom and part online. You will work at home completing tasks set by the tutor and preparing for the next lesson. This could change later in the year. Learn the English language and Maths you need to use maths in your everyday life.

Experience/Skills Required To Join This Course

You need to be learning English at Entry 2 level or above Some basic knowledge of Maths.

What Is The Course About?

You will learn to say, write and use numbers in all situations; the vocabulary of Maths; understanding and following instructions. Topics will include time, money, fractions, percentages, shapes, measurements, helping you out in everyday tasks such as shopping, decorating, budgeting, cooking, travelling, helping the children.

For The Session/s You Will Need:

A4 ring binder folder, A4 paper, pens and pencils. You will need to know how to use Skype or Microsoft Teams, have a Smartphone, laptop or tablet with internet access. If you cannot do these let us know at enrolment and we will help you

Additional Costs And/Or Resources:

None for most learners (but if you pay £9 per hour for ESOL, you will pay a course and exam fee)

How Will I Know How I Am Getting On?

When.... You can use Maths in your everyday life with more confidence You achieve targets in your learning plan You can be entered for and pass your exam You know the language of Maths to help your children

Accreditation:

You can be entered for a City and Guilds Functional Maths Exam at Entry level if you are ready.

Support For Your Learning

Once you start, if you have further queries and/or support needs, please talk to the tutor. We also offer support to

Once you start, if you have further queries and/or support needs, please talk to the tutor. We also offer support to help people with learning difficulties and/or disabilities. If you have a disability, learning difficulty, health problem or mental health difficulty that may affect your learning or participation, please contact us for further advice.

For More Information And How To Enrol

If you need more information, want to discuss levels and course content, or wish to enrol, you can call into our local centres, call our Enrolment Team, or for some courses, you can enrol online. If you need help with your choice of learning, training, career, work and life goals, please book an appointment with one of our Learning and Work Advisors who can provide free, 1:1, impartial advice. Call our FREEphone 0800 988 0308.

The Adult Learning Service Also Offers Courses In

- Computing and ICT
- Personal Development, including Arts and Leisure
- Languages, British Sign Language, and ESOL
- Maths and English
- Skills for Jobs
- Apprenticeships and Traineeships
- Family Learning
- Programmes for Adults with Learning Difficulties and/or Disabilities

Minimum Numbers

If the required minimum number of learners is not reached we cannot guarantee that the course will run. We will try to advise you 5 working days before the course start date if this is the case.

Online Learning

If you are enrolling for an online/blended learning course: It is important to check the detailed course information prior to enrolment to ensure you have suitable equipment and software. You will also need a reliable internet connection to participate in this course. If you are not sure about the requirements or have any queries or questions please get in touch with our enrolment staff using the contact details provided. Please note that online courses may be recorded and shared with adult learning staff for quality assurance purposes.