01. Who is this course for?

This course is open to anyone interested in learning how to use a water-soluble pen and a brush to make tonal marks. You will produce a landscape with buildings.

02. What will I learn?

To draw your picture, first you will be shown how to reproduce the image by using a grid - the tutor will demonstrate some techniques on how to do this. A further demonstration will be given on how to produce tone with the pen and adding water with a brush to produce different tones. You will also learn how to be more creative in response to given subject matter.

03. How will I learn?

This is a tutor-led, art class. There will be handouts available, and the tutor will also demonstrate how to achieve effects. As you work on each project the tutor will offer 1-1 help and advice. The course builds up step by step to help your understanding and for you to gain confidence in each area before moving onto the next. Please avoid taking holidays during courses. Missed lessons can affect funding for adult learning courses.

04. What will I need to bring?

For this course you will need watercolour paper, pencils, rubber, ruler, set of watercolour brushes, kitchen roll. The tutor will provide the pen.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

No experience is needed, this course is suitable for beginners and for people who have some experience.

06. How will I be assessed?

The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum uses formative and summative assessment methods to evaluate learner progress. You will work towards completing a set of class learning targets, as well as your own personal development targets. Informal discussions with the tutor will take place throughout the course, both individually and in groups. Your progress may also be documented through photographic evidence.

07. What could I do after this course?

Upon completing this course, you may wish to try one of our other art classes, such as 'Introduction to Drawing and Painting' or 'Drawing and Painting - Mixed Level' The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum offers a wide range of art, craft, sewing, cookery, dance and creative arts courses for you to continue developing skills specifically aimed at improving your wellbeing. Courses are available to search on the GoLearn website.

08. How will I be supported in my learning?

We aim to support all learners to succeed. When you enrol on your course you will be asked if you have any learning difficulties and/or disabilities which may affect your learning. This might include physical disabilities, neurodivergent needs (e.g., Autistic Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, or dyspraxia, etc.), visual and auditory impairments, or a medical condition which might affect your learning. Your tutor will contact you prior to joining the course to discuss what support can be put in place. For some learners this may mean organising extra time in exams or arranging for a Learning Support Assistant to support your learning in class. We also offer a wide range of assistive technology such as reader pens, screen readers, large print keyboards and screens, alongside in-class resources such as coloured overlays, large-print resources and more.

09. Is help available with course fees?

Many of our courses are FREE to all learners. For fee-paying courses, if you are in receipt of state benefits or have a low income (£26,211.90 before deductions) you could be entitled to enrol on your course for FREE, or at a 70% Reduced Fee cost. If your course is accredited (working towards a formal qualification) your course may be FREE if you earn under £25,000 before deductions. Some exclusions apply, eligibility for fee reduction is subject to change, and you may be required to provide evidence of earnings. If the amount you must pay for your course is over £50, we offer instalment plans which break down the cost of learning into a set number of easy monthly payments. If you need help with the wider costs of study, such as childcare, resources, travel, and transport costs, you may be eligible to have these costs reimbursed through our Discretionary Learner Support Fund. Visit us online for more details, and to download the online application form.
