01. Who is this course for?

This course is for parents and carers to help them support their children's learning and development. Families are a child's first and most important teachers; parental support is a key factor throughout a child's education. Children whose parents support their learning and take a keen interest in their education do better at school and in later life. Family Learning helps to promote good relationships within families, offering a second chance for parents to return to learning to develop their own skills and be aware of all the other learning opportunities available. You will be able to: Have fun with your children and get new ideas for things to do as a family, Understand how your children develop and learn and how you can help them grow in confidence, Discover new ways to make learning a fun experience for all, Learn how to manage stress, communicate better as a family, feel more confident and positive and set goals for your future, Share your experiences with other parents and gain ideas, advice and support from each other. NB: If you are interested in this course and it is taking place in a school or Family Hub, this course is for a specific group identified by the venue and not open to general enrolments. If you wish to find out more about courses in schools or Family Hubs and what might be on offer for you, email Family Learning: lals.familylearning@leics.gov.uk

02. What will I learn?

You will learn about how to deal with a First Aid Emergency for a baby, child and adult. Distinguish between a life-threatening and non-life threatening first aid casualty. You will learn how to child-proof your home for different ages and stages. You will: Know how and where to put in safety measures for the home Learn how and when to perform basic first aid including CPR, Recovery position and using a defibrillator Know how to deal with choking, heat exhaustion, swallowing poison plus some childhood illnesses
