01. Who is this course for?

This course is for parents and carers to help them support their children's learning and development. Families are a child's first and most important teachers; parental support is a key factor throughout a child's education. Children whose parents support their learning and take a keen interest in their education do better at school and in later life. Family Learning helps to promote good relationships within families, offering a second chance for parents to return to learning to develop their own skills and be aware of all the Have fun with your children and get new ideas for things to do as a family, Understand how your children develop and learn and how you can help them grow in confidence, Discover new ways to make learning a fun experience for all, Learn how to manage stress, communicate better as a family, feel more confident and positive and set goals for your future, Share your experiences with other parents and gain ideas, advice and support from each other. NB: If you are interested in this course and it is taking place in a school or Family Hub, this course is for a specific group identified by the venue and not open to general enrolments. If you wish to find out more about courses in schools or Family Hubs and what might be on offer for you, email Family Learning: lals.familylearning@leics.gov.uk

02. What will I learn?

There will be a 1 hour 15 minutes taught session each week with other learners and their children. You will have access to resources and materials to help you support your children. You will be encouraged to create and share fun activities with your children to help their learning. This course has been designed to enable you and your child to take part in fun storytelling activities. You will: Feel confident to tell stories to you child. (We will use traditional tales: for example The Three Billy Goats Gruff.) Recognise the importance of telling stories to children. Know how to create props and share activities to help tell a story. Know and use activities which will develop speaking and listening. Know and use activities which will develop attention. Know and use activities which will develop social and emotional skills.

03. How will I learn?

You are assessed in the classroom by the tutor and by your own self – assessment of topics. You will be asked to complete an Individual learning Plan and keep a diary where you can comment upon the topics you have learned, the progress you feel you've made and record any activities you have tried with your child. Your tutor will feedback to you regularly and may suggest some activities or resources that are appropriate for your child's ability. So that you can be successful in completing the course we do require that you try not to miss any sessions – talk to your tutor about individual video catch ups. You are expected to attend 90% of the course.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

There are no formal entry requirements for Family Learning. You do not need any previous experience, knowledge or skills to enrol on this course; just an interest in finding out about how children learn and how you can encourage and support them.
