01. Who is this course for?

The Level 3 Emergency First Aid at Work (RQF) is a practical course suitable for anyone working in a busy workplace setting. This qualification-based course will ensure you have the necessary knowledge and skills to deal with a range of emergency situations. It is delivered as a full 1-day course.

02. What will I learn?

Develop your skills in handling a wide range of emergency situations including vital life-saving and resuscitation techniques. The course covers how to: Manage an incident and casualties Carry out an initial assessment of a casualty Place a casualty into the recovery position Carry out resuscitation techniques (CPR and AED/defibrillator use) Relieve a choking adult Control bleeding Deal with shock and fainting Candidates are be expected to complete a range of physical activities to show competency.

03. How will I learn?

This qualification is tutor led as a 1-day course, which will comprise of 7 hrs in class, with rest breaks. Your tutor will use a combination of demonstrations, presentations and discussions, with feedback throughout, to guide you through the course content. Candidates will fully interact with others in realistic physical scenarios, complete floor-based activities and use a selection of first aid equipment. Reference materials will be provided to reinforce the topics covered.

04. What will I need to bring?

We recommend you bring materials like paper and pens to help you take notes. You will need a drink and lunch/snacks with you as the course is a full day with 30mins for the lunch break. Please wear suitable clothes to participate in floor-based activities. You will be required to bring photo ID to be eligible for the course.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

Prior knowledge is helpful but not essential. Candidates will be required to complete a written assignment independently, so you will need to have a good standard of English language, reading and writing to attend this course. Ideally you should hold a level 1 in English. If you are concerned about your English skills, we recommend you speak to your tutor, as we may be able to help. You must be able to perform floor-based activities for this course and to be awarded the certificate.

06. How will I be assessed?

Your learning will be assessed throughout the course with physical assessments and by final written testing. If successful, you will achieve a 'Level 3 Award in Emergency First Aid at Work (RQF)' certificate from the accreditation body TQUK. You will receive a certificate 3-4 weeks after the course which is valid for 3-years. At the end of this course, you will have gained a level 3 qualification from TQUK Qualifications.
