Adult Tap Dancing - Intermediate Level	20/04/2027	29/06/2027	ENDERBY ADULT LEARNING CENTRE	69.00

01. Who is this course for?

This course is suitable to anyone who has some tap dancing skills and knowledge. During the course learners will have the opportunity to develop and improve their rhythm and technical tap skills through taught choreographed routines and amalgamations, with support and demonstrations from the tutor. Learners can also try their own tap choreography – either choreographing for themselves or for other learners.

02. What will I learn?

The course will include experimenting with different techniques, styles and rhythms, developing performance skills using props and increasing muscle memory. The focus of the course is improving health and wellbeing, as well as developing skills and ability. The benefits of this course include increased general fitness, improved confidence, and a feeling of wellbeing through tap dancing in a fun and supportive environment.

03. How will I learn?

This is a tutor-led dance class. Learners will be supported through class demonstrations and 1:1 assistance to develop their dancing skills. Learners will receive regular verbal and written feedback on their progress.

04. What will I need to bring?

Please wear comfortable clothing and well-maintained tap shoes e.g. no protruding screws. You should also bring a towel and a water bottle. There are no additional costs for equipment, unless you would like to work with a specific prop/ item and of course, if you wish to treat yourself to a new pair of tap shoes. For online courses: suitable equipment, software, and a reliable internet connection.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

Some prior experience, knowledge and skills of tap dancing is required for this course. This course is not suitable for complete beginners.

06. How will I be assessed?

The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum uses formative and summative assessment methods to evaluate learner progress. You will work towards completing a set of class learning targets, as well as your own personal development targets. Targets are reviewed at the middle and end of the course. Informal discussions with the tutor will take place throughout the course, both individually and in groups. Your progress may also be documented through photographic/video evidence.

07. What could I do after this course?

07. What could I do after this course?

The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum offers a range of art, craft, sewing, cookery, dance and creative arts courses for you to continue developing skills specifically aimed at improving your wellbeing. The Adult Learning Service also offers courses in: Digital Skills; Languages; British Sign Language; ESOL; Maths and English; Skills for Jobs; Apprenticeships and Traineeships; Family Learning; Programmes for Adults with Learning Difficulties and/or Disabilities

08. How will I be supported in my learning?

We aim to support all learners to succeed. When you enrol on your course you will be asked if you have any learning difficulties and/or disabilities which may affect your learning. This might include physical disabilities, neurodivergent needs (e.g., Autistic Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, or dyspraxia, etc.), visual and auditory impairments, or a medical condition which might affect your learning. Your tutor will contact you prior to joining the course to discuss what support can be put in place. For some learners this may mean organising extra time in exams or arranging for a Learning Support Assistant to support your learning in class. We also offer a wide range of assistive technology such as reader pens, screen readers, large print keyboards and screens, alongside in-class resources such as coloured overlays, large-print resources and more.

09. Is help available with course fees?

Many of our courses are FREE to all learners. Your course may be FREE if you are unemployed or earn under £26,800 before deductions. If you are in receipt of state benefits or have a low income (£28,733.50 before deductions) you could be entitled to enrol on your course at a 70% reduced fee cost. Some exclusions apply, eligibility for fee reduction is subject to change, and you may be required to provide evidence of earnings. If the amount you must pay for your course is over £50, we offer instalment plans which break down the cost of learning into a set number of easy monthly payments. If you need help with the wider costs of study, such as childcare, resources, travel, and transport costs, you may be eligible to have these costs reimbursed through our Discretionary Learner Support Fund. Visit us online for more details, and to download the online application form.
