01. Who is this course for?

This is a friendly, relaxed, and informative weekly course where I will share with you my enthusiasm for baking. The recipes are easily achievable, some recipes may have some challenging techniques but nothing you can't achieve. The recipes can be easily adapted to suit your own tastes. The Theme is "Baking Around the world" creating new recipes to share with the family, during the sessions we will cover, bread, cakes, pastry, biscuits and more. Furthermore, you will get the chance to choose a couple of recipes as a group towards the end of the course.

02. What will I learn?

The course will be learning baking techniques, using your creativity to create baked products from a variety of countries around the world, some of the recipes may be challenging but nothing you can't achieve, with some focus on the history behind the creation of the week, whilst having fun and gaining confidence. You will learn: Basic culinary vocabulary, becoming more confident in your own ability challenging yourself with new recipes & techniques.

03. How will I learn?

Your progress and achievements will be recognised and recorded throughout the course using a variety of methods such as observation and feedback from the tutor; discussions; self-assessment using your personal ILP or online eILP – electronic Individual learner plan or printed version. Photographic evidence of your dish and with the knowledge and understanding learnt you can cook them again at home.

04. What will I need to bring?

Your own Apron, Tea towels & scouring pads, you may be required to bring certain equipment from home, your tutor will let you know what and when. Learners will be notified of ingredients required before the session, an ingredient and equipment list will be sent to you prior to the course start.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

None required, just enthusiasm and willing to have a go.

08. How will I be supported in my learning?

We aim to support all learners to succeed. Our tutors will work with all learners to meet individual needs by using a range of resources and teaching methods. When you enrol on your course you will be asked if you have any additional learning needs or disabilities which may affect your learning. This might include physical disabilities, neurodivergent needs (e.g., Autistic Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, or dyspraxia, etc.), visual and auditory impairments, or a medical condition which might affect your learning. Your tutor will contact you prior to joining the course to discuss what support can be put in place. For some learners, this may mean organising extra time in exams or arranging for a Learning Support Assistant to support your learning in class. We also offer a wide range of assistive technology such as reader pens, screen readers, large print keyboards and screens, alongside in-class resources such as coloured overlays, large-print resources and more.

09. Is help available with course fees?

Many of our courses are FREE to all learners. Your course may be FREE if you are unemployed or earn under £26,800 before deductions. If you are in receipt of state benefits or have a low income (£28,733.50 before deductions) you could be entitled to enrol on your course at a 70% reduced fee cost. Some exclusions apply, eligibility for fee reduction is subject to change, and you may be required to provide evidence of earnings. If the amount you must pay for your course is over £50, we offer instalment plans which break down the cost of learning into a set number of easy monthly payments. If you need help with the wider costs of study, such as childcare, resources, travel, and transport costs, you may be eligible to have these costs reimbursed through our Discretionary Learner Support Fund.
