01. Who is this course for?

This course is for anyone who has some prior knowledge of watercolours and is ready to explore how to create artwork using watercolours with drawing and mixed media. You may also have completed the Introduction to Drawing and Painting Mixed Media and/or Drawing and Painting Mixed Media - Beginners Next Steps courses prior to enrolling for this course. The Intermediate course can be repeated once.

02. What will I learn?

This course will allow you to develop your watercolour and drawing skills in observation and imagination to create both realistic and abstract artwork. Topics you will study include abstract ink drawing, animal water colours, observational landscape and cityscapes. You will also learn how to research ideas in your sketchbook, develop colour themes and find a distinctive style of your own.

03. How will I learn?

This course combines tutor-led and independent learning activities. Learners will receive regular verbal and written feedback on their progress. The course tutor will be on hand at every stage to provide support with one-to-one tuition, demonstrations, and handouts. Your Individual Learning Plan (ILP) sets out both your personal and learning aims and the overall learning objectives of your course to allow you, and your tutor, to evaluate your progress and set learning goals. Please avoid taking holidays during your course.

04. What will I need to bring?

We recommend you bring watercolours and brushes, coloured inks and a sketchbook plus drawing pencils. Writing materials like a notebook and pens may also be handy to help you take notes.

05. What skills or experience do I need?

You will need to experience using watercolours. This course is not suitable for beginners. You should have an interest in developing your creativity, as well as experimenting and exploring both drawing techniques combined with this type of media.

06. How will I be assessed?

The Learning for Wellbeing curriculum uses formative and summative assessment methods to evaluate learner progress. You will work towards completing learning targets set in class, as well as your own personal development targets. Targets are reviewed at the middle and end of the course. Informal discussions and critiques with the tutor and learners will take place throughout the course, both individually and in groups.

07. What could I do after this course?

Upon completing this course, you may wish to join Drawing and Painting - Mixed Media – Independent Learners. There are a range of courses to support your wellbeing, so why not try something else from the Learning for Wellbeing curriculum. There is a wide range of art, craft, sewing, cookery, dance and creative arts courses for you to continue developing your skills while improving your wellbeing.

08. How will I be supported in my learning?

We aim to support all learners to succeed. Our tutors will work with all learners to meet individual needs by using a range of resources and teaching methods. When you enrol on your course you will be asked if you have any additional learning needs or disabilities which may affect your learning. This might include physical disabilities, neurodivergent needs (e.g., Autistic Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, or dyspraxia, etc.), visual and auditory impairments, or a medical condition which might affect your learning. Your tutor will contact you prior to joining the course to discuss what support can be put in place. For some learners, this may mean organising extra time in exams or arranging for a Learning Support Assistant to support your learning in class. We also offer a wide range of assistive technology such as reader pens, screen readers, large print keyboards and screens, alongside in-class resources such as coloured overlays, large-print resources and more.

09. Is help available with course fees?

Many of our courses are FREE to all learners. For fee-paying courses, if you are in receipt of state benefits or have a low income (£28,733.50 before deductions) you could be entitled to enrol on your course for FREE, or at a 70% reduced fee cost. If your course is accredited (working towards a formal qualification) your course may be FREE if you earn under £26,800 before deductions. Some exclusions apply, eligibility for fee reduction is subject to change, and you may be required to provide evidence of earnings. If the amount you must pay for your course is over £50, we offer instalment plans which break down the cost of learning into a set number of easy monthly payments. If you need help with the wider costs of study, such as childcare, resources, travel, and transport costs, you may be eligible to have these costs reimbursed through our Discretionary Learner Support Fund. Visit us online for more details, and to download the online application form.

10. How do I choose the right course for me?
